Terms and Conditions:

It is the responsibility of the student (should you wish) to arrange insurance for personal possessions.

The University does not carry insurance to protect personal possessions brought into Residence and does not assume obligation or liability for lost, stolen or damaged items of personal property under any circumstances. In addition, the University does not assume obligation or liability for the replacement of food that may be lost or spoiled because of the failure of refrigerators provided.

The Resident accepts full responsibility for the use of the assigned Room and its contents and accepts all financial responsibility for damages and/or losses incurred. The Resident agrees that Rooms will be inspected and at the determination of the University will be invoiced for cleaning and/or repairs required. Carleton University will not be liable, directly, or indirectly, for any loss or theft of personal property or damage or destruction of personal property. The Resident is responsible for cleaning and maintaining an orderly state of the Room during the term of the residency including ensuring the Room is clean and free from refuse. Failure to remove items at the end of this Agreement will result in the disposal of the items and a charge to do so.

The Campus Card will act as the building, floor, and room key. Lockouts are $10; replacement cards campus cards are $24.

Floor Security doors are locked 24 hours a day. It is the resident's responsibility to ensure that these devices are used as intended, to ensure the house/floor security, or their effectiveness is not compromised. Persons found tampering or misusing floor locking devices may have their residence accommodation terminated.

The occupant will be held responsible for any shortage or damage to the room and furnishings. Rearranged furniture must be replaced to its original location before checking out.

The occupant is responsible for cleaning his/her bedroom, shared bathroom, and common suite area. No housekeeping services are provided.

Cooking is ONLY permitted in the kitchenette areas of suites. Wherever the use of appliances for the preparation of food is permitted, the resident using the appliance bears responsibility for damage to or loss of university property that arises from careless or negligent use of the appliance.
